Nature by Design: Exploring the Pristine Wilderness of Botswana and Sweden

In Nature by Design, Mattias Klum captures the vibrant patterns and colors, pristine beauty, and vast wilderness of Botswana, juxtaposed with photographs of his native Sweden. From elephants grazing in the Garden of Eden to a mute swan floating along the banks of Lake Mälaren, one can almost hear the silence and sense the peacefulness of these unique and increasingly rare environments. What results is a surprising similarity between the two locations, in many other ways so different.

This exhibition was originally commissioned by the Embassy of Sweden in honor of the March 2011 State Visit to Botswana by Their Majesties King Carl XVI Gustaf and Queen Silvia of Sweden.
